Review

Like the doctor who not only writes a prescription but tells you what your medicine is intended to achieve, Lynn explains his thinking behind his drills as well as how to execute them. This 80-minute DVD leaves nothing to chance and is as useful for the beginner or novice swimmer, coach or parent as it is for the more experienced - perhaps more so. --Swimming Times Magazine - Roger Guttridge About the Author

Alan Lynn is a highly experienced coach and coach educator. He has coached Olympic swimmers and has been on international teams for over twenty years. He is course director for the MSc in Sports Coaching at the Univeristy of Stirling.
